Dear Amador Bunco for Breast Cancer Participants,

Team # _____

Thank you joining us on Friday, April 13 for Bunco for Breast Cancer at the beautiful Jackson Rancheria Hotel and Conference Center. You may park in the parking structure, or use the valet parking at the hotel main entrance.

This year we are having a BEACH PARTY! Seas the day and make a splash! Use your imagination and have some fun in the sun! If you decide not to dress in costume, please wear pink to fill the ballroom with bunco spirit! Don't forget there will be prizes for the best-dressed team in costume!

Doors open at 4:30 p.m. and the café in the lobby will be open until 8:30pm with dinner items to purchase and take into the event. Outside food & beverage (including alcohol) may not be brought into the ballroom. The gourmet dessert buffet is included with your registration and will be served at 8 p.m. Complimentary coffee, tea and water are located near the buffet. The no-host cash bar will be open until 8:30 p.m. serving beer, wine and special cocktails. See reverse for all menus. Bunco play begins at 6 p.m. Each team may use their own bunco rules. Printed rules can also be found at each team table.

The silent auction opens at 4:30 p.m. Many items feature a "Buy Me Now", so the early birds have the advantage! Our popular cash raffle is back and two lucky winners are guaranteed to win at least $500 each! Last year one winner won over $2,400, so this year we are splitting the pot. Need not be present to win. Our wine auction table also returns this year! Just $5 per ticket and two people will win at least 8 cases of local wine each! Must be present to win!

Our event layout has been reconfigured for a wonderful evening! Registration will be located in the Cafe Lobby area, near the fireplace. Stop by to receive one ballot per team to vote for our best-dressed Beach Party team. Also in the lobby, you can shop at our popular Pink Store, open 4:30-8 p.m. Be sure to take your turn in the Jackson Rancheria's complimentary photo booth. Some silent auction tables will be in the halls outside the main ballroom. On your team table, you can pick up an auction sheet to track your bids throughout the evening. Section 1 of the auction will close at 8 p.m. and Section 2 at 8:30 p.m. If you win a silent auction item, the bid sheets will be delivered to your table. After you pay, you may take your receipt to the auction table and collect your items. If you want to bid on the live auction items, please come to the front of the stage at 7:30 p.m.

Cashiers will be available in the lobby from 8 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. You may pay for all your purchases at the same time, or pay as you receive the bid sheets. We ask in advance for your patience, as our volunteers will process all payments as quickly as possible. We accept cash, checks or credit cards (minimum $20 charge).

Bunco prizes will be distributed to each team around 9 p.m. Each team will decide how to divide the prizes among members. If you are playing on a team of 6, you will share the prizes with the other team of 6 players at your table.

We cannot thank you enough for joining us for Bunco for Breast Cancer! All funds raised allow Amador STARS to offer services to help many women in our community who are touched by cancer. Together, we DO make a difference in the lives of cancer patients and their families.

We sincerely hope you have a wonderful time!

Ginger Ralf, Chairperson
